Football is in the blood of Kashmiris: Real Kashmir coowner

Srinagar,

I-League side Real Kashmir FC co-owner Sandeep Chattoo had an extensive meeting with envoys from the European Union and other countries, at present on a visit to Jammu and Kashmir. Participating in a round table conference on Wednesday, Chattoo gave a broad outline of the journey of RKFC and how it had engaged with the youth in Kashmir valley.

"While many speakers ahead of me have spoken about many issues, I have a different narrative. The first and foremost being that of engaging with the youth of the valley and for that, I believe that sports is an umbilical cord which joins youth to the normalcy. I am proud to be the pioneer of such a club which ended the stalemate after August 5 developments last year,' he said.

'Lahore attack provided me with perspective about life'

Lahore,

Kumar Sangakkara, current president of the custodian of cricket laws -Marylebone Cricket Club (MCC), has said that the 2009 terror attack taught him a lot of lessons and made him aware about his own values and character.

As the Sri Lankan team bus approached the Gaddafi Stadium on March 3, 2009 for what should have been the third morning of the second Test against Pakistan, they were attacked by 12 gunmen on the Liberty Roundabout.

The attack left six policemen and two civilians dead. as well as the driver of the minibus carrying the match officials.

Sangakkara, who was part of that team, is now back to the city almost 11 years after when he will be leading the MCC in three T20 matches and a 50-over game.

"I don't think I need any flashbacks, because I remember that day and those moments so very clearly," Sangakkara told ESPNcricinfo.

"It's not something I relive or wallow in. But it's an experience you should never forget, because it gives you perspective in terms of life and sport, and you learn a lot about your own values and characters, and those of others.

about talking about it, it's not something that upsets me, but these sorts of experiences can only strengthen vou. Today I consider myself very fortunate to be able to come back here to Lahore, and at the same time that day," he added.

"I have no reservations
